Re: Equity Private Placement, United Resource Recovery Corporation, ("URRC").

Dear Carlos,

This is to confirm our conversation wherein RamKo Venture Management ("RamKo") and its affiliate Adirondack Capital Partners Inc. have agreed, on a best efforts basis, to attempt to place an equity funding for URRC. Further, we have agreed that should RamKo be in the position to close such transactions, on substantially the terms outlined, and if, for any reason, the Company chooses to accept alternative funding or a strategic investment, RamKo shall be entitled to, as a break-up fee, compensation equal to its minimum fee ($300,000 plus warrants) less any amount contractually due and payable or paid under the enclosed Summary of Terms.

Additionally, I would like to direct your attention to page 4 of the Summary of Terms. Please note that the paragraph entitled "Conversion" outlines a procedure where the preferred equity could have a claim upon conversion, for a greater percentage of common equity than we have discussed. This type of provision is not meant to increase the position of the investor in the ongoing investment. It is however, meant to protect the investor against committing to the investment, only to have the investment be used as a form of stalking horse for the purpose of promoting a sale of the Company. The impact, if any, can be seen by reviewing a timeline of the relative worth of the Company vs. time since investment. As an example, if after the investment (with money down-streamed to Raleigh) someone offered you $40 million for the total business, even after full dilution the provision would not be operable. Alternatively, if you raise $3 million and subsequently agreed to a buyout of under $15 million (as in a quick flip) the provision would operate to protect the investor. I would be pleased to spend the time with you and Gerry to get you and or your counsel comfortable with the concept.

Re: Equity Private Placement, United Resource Recovery Corporation ("URRC")
– SIDE LETTER #1

Dear Carlos,

This is to confirm our conversation wherein RamKo Venture Management, Inc. ("RamKo") and its affiliate Adirondack Capital Partners Inc. ("B/D") have agreed, on a best efforts basis, to attempt to raise specific funding for URRC. The major points for the Private Placement are summarized on our executed copy of the "Summary of Terms". One of the provisions enclosed therewith, calls for the Company to enter into a financial advisory agreement with RamKo or one of its affiliates. We agree herewith, that in the event the Company, deems it necessary, as a requirement of the contemplated funding, to not retain RamKo's services, then the Company, on the one hand and RamKo, on the other hand, agree that, in such event the Company herewith grants to RamKo or one of its affiliates, the right of first refusal to arrange any additional funding necessary (exclusive of any bank related Senior Debt), for a period not to exceed 5 years, or such shorter time that cash commissions paid for such placements, equal the fees that would have been payable over the term of the contemplated financial advisory agreement. For purposes of this calculation, future fees paid, shall not include any fees paid or payable, as a result of transactions contemplated by the "Summary of Terms" and shall at all times be calculated, on the basis of fees considered normal and customary in the investment banking industry, for similar transactions.

Additionally, this is to acknowledge our discussions wherein RamKo has agreed to consider the reduction of its stated fees, subject to the source of the potential investor, as outlined in the Summary of Terms and based upon market pricing for similar transactions.

Further, RamKo and the Company have agreed that in consideration of past work on the Company's behalf, the Company shall issue to RamKo or its designee a 10 year warrant to purchase up to 4,000 shares (post private placement closing) of the Company's common stock exercisable, inclusive of a cashless exercise option, at $200.00 per share (based on the capital structure outlined in the Summary of Terms).

I enclose herewith, a copy of RamKo's standard financial advisory agreement, as executed by another of its clients. It would be our intent to use this form as the basis of our Agreement.

Should you have any questions and or comments, please don't hesitate to telephone. If the foregoing, the Summary of Terms and the draft Agreement accurately outline our agreements in these matters, please execute, fax and return by U.S. mail a copy of this document. Thank you for your courtesy. We look forward to working with you and your whole organization.

Summary of Terms

- Warrants : Term: the lesser of 10 years from closing or 5 years from the IPO date.
Exercise Prices: "A" Warrants - $200. per share
Features: -The "A" Warrants shall be non-callable and shall allow for cashless exercise and not be call-able.
- Liquidation Preference: In the event of a liquidation, the Preferred holders shall be entitled to receive, in preference to the holders of Common Stock, an amount equal to the original issue price plus accrued but unpaid dividends. A consolidation or merger of the Company, the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, a material change in senior management, or an initial public offering of at least $15 million, shall be treated as a liquidation.
- Redemption: The Company shall redeem one-third of any outstanding Preferred on the fifth anniversary of the Closing, one-third on the sixth anniversary and one-third on the seventh anniversary of Closing. The redemption amount is the original issue price plus accrued but unpaid dividends, if any.
- Forced Redemption: At anytime after the fifth anniversary of the Closing, the Company shall have the right to redeem 100% of any then unconverted Preferred Shares at the redemption amount (detailed above).
- Conversion: Holders of the Preferred Shares may convert their shares immediately preceding a liquidation or redemption event, into a number of common shares which would equal the greater of either one share of Preferred Shares for one share of Common Stock (1:1) or that number of common shares, based on the valuation established for the liquidation or redemption event, that would result in the holder of the Preferred Shares receiving the greater of (i) 200% of the original issue amount, or (ii) a compounded annual return of 30% on the original issue price from the date of purchase, pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, through the date of conversion. In the event a proposed liquidation event would have paid the holders the requisite return in cash, but such proposal was rejected by the Preferred Shareholders, conversion thereafter shall be on the basis of one share of Preferred for one share of Common.

Private Placement – URRC

Summary of Terms

Preemptive Rights: The Investor Group shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase that portion of any subsequent offerings equal to their pro-rata share of the Common ownership of the Company.

Co-Sale Rights: In the event of a proposed sale of Common Stock by any Current Shareholder to a non-Current Shareholder, such shares must be offered first to (i) the Preferred Holders and then (ii) the other shareholders, subject to a shareholders agreement and last (iii) the Company shall have the right to purchase any or all of the offered shares and/or the right to participate pro-rata in the sale of any shares to such non-Current Shareholder either, on the same terms as proposed by the selling shareholder. Existing shareholders will execute an agreement to this effect.

Protective Provisions: So long as any of the preferred shares have not been converted, the Company shall not, without the affirmative vote of seventy five percent (75%) of the holders of the Preferred Shares, among other provisions: 1) alter, change or amend the terms of the Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Company; 2) authorize, create or issue any additional debt; 3) increase or decrease the number of Directors; 4) redeem, repurchase, declare a dividend or make any distributions of capital stock; 5) enter into any material transaction with any officer, Directors, employee, or affiliate; 6) enter into any dissimilar business; 7) acquire companies (or their assets) whose purchase price exceeds 15% of the total assets of the Company as of the most recent quarterly balance sheet; 8) to approve a merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all the assets of the Company

Registration Rights: Holders of the Common shall be entitled to unlimited piggyback registration rights. All registrations will be at the Company's expense and will be subject to customary cutbacks at the underwriter's discretion.

Board of Directors: At such point as the Private Placement is closed, the Board of Directors of URRC will be comprised of 5 persons. There shall be two directors appointed by current ownership. The Investor Group shall be granted two seats on the Board of Directors and one seat on all Committees of the Board. A fifth member shall be appointed reasonably satisfactory to both the current ownership and the Investor Group.

At such time, the Board shall meet at least quarterly with adequate notice provided to all Directors. Certain key strategic decisions, including approval of the budget, issuance's of debt or equity, mergers/acquisitions, and transactions with affiliates shall require the approval of a 66.7% of the Company's Board of Directors. All compensation decisions for key management shall be approved by the Compensation Committee. An Investor Group Director and an outside Board Member shall comprise a majority of such committee.

Private Placement – URRC

Summary of Terms

- Board Expenses: The Company shall reimburse Board members for all reasonable expenses associated with the duties and requirements of their membership on the Board and/or its Committees.
- Information Rights: The Company shall provide the investors with monthly financials not later than 30 days after the close of the month, audited financials not later than 120 days after the close of the fiscal year, and an annual plan (with budget and narrative) no later than 30 days prior to the close of the previous year.
- Key Person Insurance: The Company shall maintain key person insurance on certain members of management until otherwise determined by the Board of Directors.
- Non-Compete: Prior to closing, certain employees of the Company will sign non-compete agreement, the terms of which must be acceptable to the Investor Group.
- Estimated Expenses: The Company shall pay actual out-of-pocket expenses (whether or not such Private placement shall ultimately close) for the preparation, execution and enforcement of the underlying documentation.
- Management Fees: To the extent the Company accepts Private Placement Funds arranged by RamKo, as compensation for its active participation in the on-going strategic direction and oversight of the Company's activities, the Company shall enter into a financial advisory agreement with an affiliate of RamKo for a term of five years or as long as a representative of RamKo remains on the Company's Board of Directors. The terms of this agreement shall include a monthly advisory fee of $8,500 plus reasonable out of pocket expense. Additionally, RamKo and or its affiliates shall be entitled to customary transaction fees associated with future financing(s) or acquisition(s) arranged by such other RamKo entity.
- Incentive Compensation: Notwithstanding any other provision contained within this Summary of Terms, it is understood that an Incentive Compensation Program will be developed for the reward of those assisting in the creation of shareholder worth. An amount of fully diluted Common Stock, to be approved by the Board of Directors, equal to between 5% and 10% of the share ownership of the Company, shall be reserved for such program.

Private Placement – URRC

Summary of Terms

Exclusivity Period: The Company shall provide RamKo a 180 day period of exclusivity to complete due diligence, to negotiate and execute definitive documentation and to close the transaction. During this exclusive period, neither the Company nor its affiliates and/or advisors shall initiate discussions or engage in due diligence correspondence with respect to an equity investment in the Company with any party other than RamKo. During such period, should the Company introduce “persons” who ultimately invest in such Private Placement – either the cash fee paid to RamKo at closing shall be reduced by an amount, not greater than 50% of the stated cash fee due, on that amount of funds so placed and/or the Company may designate, the recipient of the excess fee. The Company and RamKo agree to reasonably resolve the allocation of such fees based upon the amount of support RamKo personnel expend on such placement.

To the extent a potential investor is a recipient of the Company’s Business Plan or such other documentation, as prepared by RamKo or otherwise has been introduced to the Company by Ramko, or any of its affiliates, and such potential investor makes an investment in the equity of the Company within a two year period, then RamKo shall be due it’s fee as outlined hereunder.

Confidentiality: The term sheet is confidential and may not be disclosed to anyone other than representatives of the Company and its financial and legal advisors without the express written consent of RamKo.

Approximate Closing: June 30,2004

Private Placement – URRC

Summary of Terms

This Term sheet, and the proposed terms set forth herein, does not constitute a binding agreement or commitment of RamKo or any of its affiliates. Any agreement or commitment shall only be contained in definitive agreements (containing the usual representations, warranties, conditions and covenants for these types of transactions) to be negotiated, executed and delivered, if at all, after the completion of appropriate due diligence and fulfillment of the other conditions referred to above. In that regard, RamKo has previously disclosed that it currently intends to put together an Investment Group to subscribe to an amount of the proposed Private Placement. Notwithstanding, nothing contained herein should be deemed to constitute a proposal for an "underwritten" financing. While RamKo is highly confident, based on the terms and conditions outlined herein, that it has knowledge of investors who would fully subscribe to such Private Placement, no such guarantee is made nor should be implied.

It is our understanding that the Company intends to make a decision on the Agency of the Private Placements on January 11, 2004. If the foregoing outline for the Private Placement is satisfactory to the Company, please evidence your willingness to proceed by executing one copy of this outline, on or before January 15, 2004 returning it to the attention of the undersigned (fax confirmed through U.S. mail).
